Ruth Clinton & Niamh Moriarty
Ella DeBurca, Curated by Linda Shevlin

On Wednesday 09 December 2015 at 7pm
Ground & First Floor Galleries

Marking the 10th edition of Amharc Fhine Gall, Fingal Arts Office is delighted to present the work of Ella DeBurca, Ruth Clinton & Niamh Moriarty with its annual exhibition opportunity Amharc Fhine Gall X. The opportunity also extends to a curator who works with the artists to create a suitable context to show their work to a wider local and contemporary art audience in a professional, contemporary art space. This year the show is curated by Linda Shevlin. The specifically commissioned new works in this exhibition were created by revisiting historical material and overlapping major and minor narratives across multiple times and places, exposing larger historical and social narratives.

Exhibition continues until 13 February 2016
